

Galette Des Rois
The Pastry Chef of
Her Majesty, The Queen

I'll have which I should have been used to seeing.
Like the unfamiliar
sight.

Galette Des Rois?
What a strange creature
What kind of mysterious thing would have
that name?

Rattle

Welcome.

what kind night you are looking for?

In this shop,
we have various kinds of sweets from all around the world

It's my order,
and I just can't lose
to anyone else!

Please give me
the best and most expensive chocolate
you have here!

That is to say,
you better hand over the money for.

what do you think about these?

It's a real brand, imported by our firm from a certain country, and is a luxury article to buy.

There are many different flavours.

Which one do you think the person you like will enjoy?

As a customer,
what do you think it would be?

What flavour does
the person like?

It's the combination of you two talking
for the first time.

Magic Chocolate.

Thank you very much

The month we will be running a deficit...

In terribly
sorry
